

Coodu Trust Travel Policy

Purpose

The purpose of this Travel Policy is to outline the procedures and guidelines for employees of Coodu Trust regarding business travel. This ensures that all travel is conducted efficiently, cost-effectively, and in compliance with the organization's values and legal requirements.

Scope

This policy applies to all full-time and part-time employees, contractors, and consultants who are required to travel for Coodu Trust-related business activities.

1. Travel Booking Process

- Preferred Travel Provider: All travel bookings should be made through Coodu Trust's approved travel booking system or preferred travel agency.
- Advance Booking: Employees are encouraged to book travel at least two weeks in advance to secure the best rates.
- Approval Process: Travel requests must be approved by the employee's supervisor or manager prior to booking.
- Booking Class:
 - Air Travel: Economy class is the standard for all flights under 5 hours. For flights over 5 hours, employees may book premium economy class, subject to managerial approval.
 - Train and Bus Travel: Standard class tickets must be booked unless a specific exception is authorized.
 - Car Travel: Employees may use personal vehicles for business travel. Mileage reimbursement will be provided based on current IRS rates.

2. Travel Expenses

- Reimbursable Expenses:
 - Transportation: Airfare, train, bus, and taxi or rideshare services.
 - Lodging: Reasonable and moderately priced accommodations. Hotel bookings should be made with Coodu Trust's preferred hotel partners when available.
 - Miscellaneous: Internet charges, parking fees, business-related phone calls, and

3. Lodging and Accommodation

- Hotel Booking: Employees should book hotels within reasonable proximity to the business event, conference, or meeting. Standard room rates are encouraged.

- Per Diem for Accommodation: Coodu Trust recommends staying at a hotel with a nightly rate not exceeding Rs. 1200/- unless the local market or special circumstances dictate higher prices.
- Extended Stays: Any stays longer than five nights must be pre-approved by a supervisor to ensure the necessity of the extended accommodation.

4. Travel Insurance

- Coodu Trust provides travel insurance coverage for employees while traveling on business.
- Employees should ensure they are aware of the coverage provided and report any issues or accidents immediately to the HR department.

5. Expense Reporting and Reimbursement

- Expense Submission: Employees must submit all travel-related expenses within five business days of returning from their trip. Receipts are required for all expenses.
- Approval Process: Expense reports must be reviewed and approved by the employee's direct supervisor before being submitted to finance for reimbursement.
- Reimbursement Method: Reimbursements will be processed through the employee's usual payroll cycle or via direct deposit.

6. Conduct During Travel

- Professionalism: Employees are expected to maintain a professional demeanor and adhere to Coodu Trust's Code of Conduct while traveling.
- Personal Travel: Combining personal travel with business trips is allowed if it does not interfere with the work schedule and does not incur additional costs to Coodu Trust.
- Travel Safety: Employees should prioritize safety during travel, including adhering to local laws, following COVID-19 guidelines, and securing personal belongings.

7. International Travel

- Pre-Trip Preparation: Employees traveling internationally must notify the HR department at least four weeks in advance to allow time for obtaining visas, vaccinations, and travel insurance.
- Currency Exchange: Employees should use Coodu Trust's corporate credit card or a travel-specific prepaid card for international expenses. Personal credit cards should not be used for business-related international expenses unless pre-approved.
- Health and Safety: Employees should check health advisories and vaccinations required for international destinations. Coodu Trust will provide a health and safety briefing prior to international travel.

8. Emergency Travel Situations

- Travel Disruptions: In the event of a flight cancellation or travel delay, employees should contact the travel agency or Coodu Trust's travel coordinator for assistance.
- Medical Emergencies: Employees must contact local medical services and inform Coodu Trust's HR department immediately in case of illness or injury during business travel.

9. Compliance with the Policy

- Policy Violations: Any violations of this travel policy may result in non-reimbursement of expenses, disciplinary action, or termination of employment if warranted.
- Audits and Reviews: Coodu Trust reserves the right to review and audit travel expenses to ensure compliance with this policy.

10. Policy Updates

Coodu Trust may revise this travel policy periodically to reflect organizational needs and changing regulations. Employees will be notified of any updates in a timely manner.

Acknowledgment of Travel Policy

By traveling for Coodu Trust, employees acknowledge that they have read and understood the Travel Policy and agree to comply with all guidelines set forth.A

True Copy

Name: S.Jagadeesan
Position: Director
Organization: Coodu Trust

